ในปัจจุบันงานวิจัยทางการเขียนงานวิชาการได้มุ่งเน้นไปในสองแนวทางคือมุ่งศึกษารูปแบบโครงสร้างหลักของตัวบทความวิชาการหรือศึกษาลักษณะเฉพาะทางภาษาศาสตร์ งานวิจัยฉบับนี้มีจุดประสงค์เพื่อวิเคราะห์อันตรภาคเชิงวาทศิลป์ (move) และกลุ่มคำศัพท์ (lexical bundles) ของอันตรภาคของบทความวิจัยทางด้านวิทยาศาสตร์การเกษตร ผู้วิจัยได้ทำการวิเคราะห์บทความวิจัยสามสิบเรื่องในสาขาวิทยาศาสตร์การเกษตร ได้แก่ สาขาเทคโนโลยีการผลิตพืช สาขาเทคโนโลยีอาหาร และสาขาเทคโนโลยีการผลิตสัตว์ ตามแนวทางของกนกศิลป์ธรรม (Kanoksilapatham, 2005) หลังจากนั้นกลุ่มคำศัพท์ที่พบบ่อยในแต่ละอันตรภาคจะถูกวิเคราะห์และจัดกลุ่มตามลักษณะหน้าที่ โดยกลุ่มคำศัพท์ที่ได้มาจากคลังข้อมูล (CASA) ซึ่งรวบรวมบทความวิจัยทางด้านวิทยาศาสตร์การเกษตร จากวารสารระดับนานาชาติที่มีการตรวจสอบโดยผู้เชี่ยวชาญ ลักษณะทางภาษาศาสตร์และหน้าที่ของกลุ่มคำศัพท์จะช่วยให้นักวิจัยหน้าใหม่หรือนักศึกษาสามารถอ่านและเขียนบทความวิจัยทางวิทยาศาสตร์การเกษตรได้อย่างมีประสิทธิภาพ

MOVE/ LEXICAL BUNDLES/ RESEARCH ARTICLES

Currently, there have been two lines of research in the study of academic writing, focusing on the structural organization of academic text or specific linguistic features. The aim of this study was to identify rhetorical moves and their lexical bundles in research articles in the field of Agricultural Science. Thirty research articles in three major fields of Agricultural Science, including Crop Production Technology, Food Technology and Animal Production Technology, were analyzed based on Kanoksilapatham's (2005) framework. Then, frequent lexical bundles of each move were identified and classified functionally on the basis of a Corpus of Agricultural Science Articles (CASA) which consists of international peer-reviewed research articles. The lexical bundles which link linguistic features and convey functional units may help novice researchers or students to read and write agricultural science research articles effectively.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my deepest appreciation to my advisor, Associate Professor Dr. Anchalee Wannaruk, for her guidance. I am grateful to her for having introduced me to the field of Corpus Linguistics. She always encouraged me to come up with my own ideas and approaches towards solving a problem. She has given me her valuable time and patience. Her encouragement has contributed a great deal to the accomplishment of the thesis. I enjoyed talking to her and I learned a lot from her, including attitudes about life and learning.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the committee members for the defense of the present thesis, Dr. Jitpanat Suwanthep, Chair of the Committee, Dr. Butsakorn Yodkamlue and Dr. Issra Pramoolsook. They all offered very useful suggestions that were very impressive and improved my thesis a lot. Special thanks should go to Associate Professor Dr. Adrian Evan Flood and Mr. Peter Bint who have put considerable time and effort into checking the reliability of the move analysis and lexical bundles.

I also owe a special gratitude to all the teachers of the course work at SUT. They have helped me to develop a fundamental and essential academic competence. My sincere appreciation also goes to the academic committee members of SUT who awarded me the research grant and to the secretaries of the School of English at SUT who have often helped me with my work.

I owe my deepest thanks to Mr. Tian Xingbin, Dean of Foreign Language Department at Tongren University, China. It was his encouragement that made me able to continue my study at SUT. He gave me many academic suggestions. Also, he treated me like a friend with a very kind attitude towards my troubles. Mr. Zhang Baoya who works with Associate Professor, Dr. Anchalee Wannaruk has proofread my list of lexical bundles. I am also grateful to all my Chinese and Thai friends at SUT for helping me whenever I have needed them.

Last but not least, my gratitude also extends to my family who have been assisting, supporting and caring for me all of my life, especially my mother and sister.
