BIOGRAPHY

Miss Kestsirin Theerathitichaipa was born on July 26, 1996 in Phichit Province, Thailand. She received his Bachelor's Degree in Engineering (Logistics Engineering) from Pibulsongkram Rajabhat University in 2017 in Phitsanulok. After her graduation, she was awarded scholar from Naresuan University to continue study in the Master's Degree in Science Program in Logistics and Supply Chain and graduated in 2021 in Phitsanulok. Later her graduation, she was awarded scholar from Suranaree University of Technology to continue study in the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Civil, Transportation, and Geo-Resources Engineering program.

Miss Kestsirin Theerathitichaipa has conducted research and authored articles on railway transportation systems using geographical modeling and statistical principles, focusing on analyzing disparities in access to railway routes. She has published articles in several international journals, such as the Journal of Geovisualization and Spatial Analysis, Civil Engineering Journal. Her current research focuses on analyzing the structural relationships between the impact factors of the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) on Thai people's perceptions of benefits and their intentions to use the China–Laos high-speed railway.